3.	On a small island (N 69-04, E 33-17) there was a radar screen on a mast five or six meters high. It resembled the usual type of navigational radar, and it was the same size and shape as a Decca-type radar.
4.	At the repair slip at the seaplane basin in Vayenga Bay, there were four twinengined seaplanes. On 20 February, a piston-engined aircraft passed over Murmansk Otherwise there was no air activity.	•
5.	The fog signals from Cape Set Navolok (N 69-24, E 33-30) were very irregular.	_
